

Directions to Sarum College by Train and Taxi:

There are direct trains to and from London, Southampton, Portsmouth, Bath, Bristol, Cardiff and Exeter. Trains run about every half-hour from London Waterloo, Bristol, Basingstoke and Southampton on Saturdays, with hourly return trains on Sundays. Hourly trains run every day from Exeter. A taxi from the train station takes 5-10 minutes and costs £5-£6. I am happy to let others know your E.T.A. in case you can share.

Directions by Car:

Car parking at Sarum College is limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis, but there is normally space at weekends. There is one space reserved for disabled parking. Alternatively there's a small car park within the Cathedral Close (£7), along with others in the city centre.

If you do come by car, the High Street entrance is the only way to drive into the Close. Beware: satellite navigation systems sometimes suggest St. Ann's Gate, which offers pedestrian-only access. It may be easier to use the post code SP1 2PF for the High Street Post Office, so you are directed straight to the High Street Gate.

From St Paul's Roundabout

From St Mark's Roundabout

From the left lane of London Road (A30), exit to the A36 going South (past Bourne Avenue and Wain-a-Long Road). Move to the right lane before you arrive at the College roundabout and go straight (second exit, A36 to Southampton is the first exit) until you arrive at the New Bridge Roundabout.
